Smoke in Designated Area

Santa's Farm is a smoke-free venue. Smoking is permitted only in the parking lot. To Exit the farm to smoke, simply go through the Exit Barn and request a wristband from the cashier for an easy re-entry. All areas, including the Christmas tree field, inside the farm entrance gates are smoke-free. Please note that e-cigarettes and vaporizers are treated the same as tobacco and only permitted in designated smoking areas. Additionally, marijuana is prohibited.

Costume Guidelines

Guests are welcome and encouraged to wear costumes for our themed events, pumpkin patch at Halloween, or any other time. Please see the following Costume Guidelines:

- No costume masks, veils, long trains, live animals, swords or weaponry are permitted. Face coverings worn for medical or health reasons are permitted. Any home-crafted wands must be rounded on either end and must be appropriate in nature.
- Santa's Farm will have sole discretion to decide whether an item is permissible. Any item deemed inappropriate will need to be returned to the guest's vehicle.
- If a guest is spotted in a costume that is not deemed permissible, he or she will be asked to either remove the costume and change into something more appropriate or exit the farm.
- To ensure guests' safety, some costumes may not be permitted on certain activities or rides.
